TO WORSHIP GOD

Call to Worship from Psalm 103 and John 6:39

One: The LORD is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. He will not constantly accuse us, nor does he remain angry forever.

ALL: He does not punish us for all our sins; he does not deal harshly with us as we deserve. For he knows how weak we are; he remembers we are only dust. Our days on earth are like grass; like wildflowers, we bloom and die.

One: But the love of the LORD remains forever with those who fear him. His salvation extends to the children's children

ALL: of those who are faithful to his covenant, of those who obey his commandments.

One: For it is my Father's will, says the Lord, that I lose none of those he has entrusted to me,

ALL: And that I should raise them up on the last day.

I WANT YOU TO FOLD UP MY BURIAL CLOTHES, WAIT FOR MARY, AND REMEMBER THAT THIS IS SERIOUS ... NO HIDING AND YELLING "BOO"

GOOD MORNING!

Thanks for coming to worship today; we're been looking forward to being together! If it's your first time here, or first time in a long time, or you're here all the time, we hope you'll be encouraged: to think, to explore, to believe, to become, to take a step on the journey of life and faith with greater hope and a deeper desire to serve. You'll find more about worship on the next page – if you have any questions, please ask the person who greeted you at the door! You are among friends...God's grace and love abide...so come as you are, and come to know something about the life and love of Jesus and the presence of God's Spirit with us always and everywhere!

We're grateful that Murray Watson is our guest this morning, and will bring a message in the series, CREED. Murray is a homegrown man, a former priest, a teacher and leader in Jewish-Christian relations, and world traveller! Pastor Chris is visiting her brother in Switzerland, and returns this Friday.

We're in a series of messages called CREED Faith Words about an ancient yet still standard summary of what Christians believe; a summary that is shared by Christians of every variety all over the world. We say these words each week in worship, to remind us of the 'basics' of the Christian faith. But we need to be reminded of what it all means, so it isn't just a rote repetition, but truly a confession of faith. Today a line in the creed that belongs all year 'round, not just Easter: "I believe in the resurrection of the body."

A Word

About

Worship....

You are welcome here. Really. You are among friendly people who care, who aren't perfect, but are on a journey of faith. If you are a guest, we don't expect you to give an offering; if you wish to do so, we're grateful. Join us for refreshments downstairs after worship. We hope you are blessed by being here, and that you'll come again!

KID CONNECTION welcomes all children! Come up front for the children's time; parents welcome, too! Then join the group and head downstairs after the children's song. Children will rejoin us for the closing song. Feel free to accompany your child downstairs and then return for the message once they are settled.

Washrooms are at the back entry and in the downstairs hall; baby change stations are located in the back entry washroom and just off the front entryway.

We have hearing assistance devices available. Just ask a greeter or the staff at the sound booth at the back.

Please join us for refreshments and conversation following worship! Head downstairs after the service – you'll be welcome! More information about worship and our church on the next page, and at our website

- Orange juice and bottled water are available on the back table by the front entry door.

7-8 p.m. at Chris' home. An informal, faith-seeking gathering for anyone, any age, any stage of faith! We are currently doing "Starting Point" a thoughtful engaging series on faith with Andy Stanley.
